

Terra 2019 Short-Term Flow-Through Limited Partnership Launches

TORONTO, March 6, 2019 /CNW/ - Terra Fund Management Ltd. ("Terra") is pleased to announce the launch of its dual class Terra 2019 Short-Term Flow-Through Limited Partnership (the "Partnership") effective today. The Partnership is sold by offering memorandum through IROC and Exempt Market Dealers. Investment can be made using FundSERV codes TER 319 / TER 419. The offering will be made in each province of Canada.

About the Partnership

The Partnership will invest in a diversified portfolio of public mining and energy resource firms and provide tax deductions of up to 100% for the 2019 taxation year and 115% over the life of the Partnership. Units of the Partnership ("Units") are available to accredited and eligible investors at a price per Unit of $100 with a minimum subscription of 25 Units ($2,500). Redemptions may begin on or about June 2020.

The dual class structure offers A class units (TER 319) for clients with regular accounts and F class units (TER 419) for fee-based accounts. "With the dual class structure, attractive tax savings, early redemption feature, and outstanding track record, Terra partnerships offer exceptional value," says Terra President John Jacobi.

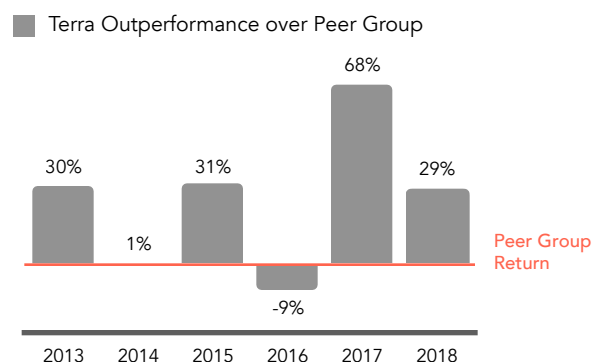

About the Manager

The portfolio investments for the Partnership are managed by Greg Bay and Jeff Bay of Cypress Capital Management Ltd. ("Cypress"). Founded in 1998 in Vancouver, Cypress manages over $3 billion in assets for institutional and private clients. Greg Bay, a co-founder of Cypress, has over 30 years experience investing in the resource sector and brings established relationships in the industry, which will assist the Partnership in sourcing quality investments. The portfolio management team have a particularly strong capability in the small and medium capitalization areas where the majority of the flow-through resource investments occur.
