WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

The securities legislation in some provinces and territories gives you the right to withdraw from the agreement to buy mutual funds within two (2) Business Days of receiving the Offering Memorandum, or to cancel your purchase within 48 hours of receiving confirmation of your order.

Securities legislation in some provinces and territories also allows you to cancel an agreement to buy mutual fund securities and get your money back, or to make a claim for damages, if this Offering Memorandum or financial statements misrepresent any facts about the Funds. These rights must usually be exercised within certain time limits.

For more information, see the securities legislation in your province or territory or ask your lawyer.

A WORD ABOUT TAX

Any money an investor makes on the fund is taxable. How much income tax you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not the fund is in a registered plan, such as Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA).

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions, if any, are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.
